

Los Angeles Nonprofits VOTE 2008 – Civic Engagement Forum

How Your Nonprofit Can Help Your Communities Vote November 4

- ☛ Find out how your nonprofit can encourage nonpartisan voter participation
- ☛ Get up-to-date information on voting in California this year
- ☛ Learn how to build stronger communities through active civic engagement

Thursday, September 18, 2008

8:30 – 9:00AM: Check-in (coffee, fruit and pastries will be served)
9:00 – 11:00AM: Training and Discussion
11:00 – 12:30PM: Election Kick-off and Networking (light refreshments)

National Center for the Preservation of Democracy
111 N. Central Avenue, Los Angeles

Note: All participants receive complimentary Nonprofit Voter Participation toolkits and materials (available in English and Spanish)

Who should attend: Staff, board members or volunteers of a nonprofit or foundation

RSVP: Online: www.nonprofitvote.org/losangelesforum.html
Email: marcykoukhab@gmail.com or call: (310) 486-8352

Sponsored by: Advancement Project, Asian Pacific American Legal Center, Asian Pacific Policy and Planning Council, California Association of Nonprofits, California Common Cause, Center for Governmental Studies, Center for Nonprofit Management, Community Health Vote, Community Partners, Healthy City Project, League of Women Voters of Los Angeles, Liberty Hill Foundation, and the UCLA Center for Civil Society

☆☆

Did you know in 2004 just 60% of eligible voters turned out in Southern California - 32nd in the Nation. Southern California nonprofits can make a difference in helping our communities participate and vote November 4th.

